Fingal Heritage Plan 2011-2017

We're looking for your help

Fingal County Council is preparing the second Heritage Plan for Fingal. The Heritage Plan will deal with all aspects of our natural and cultural heritage. This includes landscapes, flora, fauna, wildlife, archaeology, architectural heritage, local history and folklore.

A Draft Heritage Plan has now been prepared following an initial period of public consultation in March and April 2011, taking into account submissions received and with the advice and guidance of the Fingal Heritage Forum.

The Draft Heritage Plan and the accompanying Habitats Directive Appropriate Assessment Screening report is now available in the following locations:

- Fingal County Council Offices:
 - County Hall, Main Street, Swords, Co. Dublin
 - Civic Offices, Grove Road, Blanchardstown, Dublin 15
Mon – Thurs 9.00am – 5.00pm & Fri 9.00am to 4.30pm)
- Public libraries in Balbriggan, Baldoyle, Blanchardstown, Garristown, Howth, Malahide, Rush, Skerries, Swords. Please check opening times locally.

Documents can also be viewed and downloaded from our website at <http://www.fingalcoco.ie>

You are invited to make observations or a submission on the Draft Fingal Heritage Plan 2011-2017 and the accompanying Habitats Directive Appropriate Assessment Screening Report. In making observations or a submission you may find it helpful to complete our questionnaire available at <http://www.fingalcoco.ie>

Alternatively, submissions or observations may be made in writing to the Heritage Office, County Hall, Swords, Fingal, Co. Dublin or by email to heritage@fingalcoco.ie.

Observations and submissions received before 4.00pm on Friday 17th February 2012 will be taken into consideration by the Council in the final preparation of the Fingal Heritage Plan.
