Fingal County Council

Press Release

5 March 2018

Fingal Heritage Plan 2018-2023 Public Information Evenings held in Swords and Blanchardstown

Fingal County Council has prepared a Draft Heritage Plan for Fingal covering the period 2018-2023 which deals with all aspects of our natural and cultural heritage. Public Information Evenings will be held on Monday March 5 from 4pm – 8pm in the Atrium, County Hall, Swords and on Monday 12th March from 4pm – 8pm in the Civic Offices, Grove Road, Blanchardstown. Council staff will be on hand to answer any queries in relation to the Draft Heritage Plan.
The Draft Heritage Plan builds on the two previous heritage plans for Fingal and the results of an initial consultation process in 2017. It proposes 41 actions under the following four themes: Communicating our Heritage to a Wide Audience; Caring for our Heritage; Increasing the Level of Community Activity for Heritage and Supporting the Local Economy.

The Council also wants to hear your views on the Draft Heritage Plan. The Draft Plan is available to view or to download at https://consult.fingal.ie/en/browse. A copy of the Draft Heritage Plan is also available for consultation at Council offices and local libraries. Submissions or observations on the Draft Heritage Plan can be made online. Alternatively, written submissions or observations marked Draft Heritage Plan 2018 – 2023 can be sent to the Heritage Officer, Planning & Strategic Infrastructure Department, Fingal County Council, County Hall, Swords, Co. Dublin K67 X8Y2. Submissions or observations may be made by email to heritage@fingal.ie.

Observations and submissions received before 5.00pm on Tuesday 3rd April 2018 will be taken into consideration by the Council in the final preparation of the Fingal Heritage Plan 2018-2023.
