

Flavours Of Fingal 2016

PRESS RELEASE

Flavours of Fingal, the hugely popular North County Dublin County Show, now in its fifth year, will take place on weekend of 25th and 26th June and will be held again in Newbridge House and Farm, Donabate. This year's Flavours of Fingal will be another action packed two day event which will combine the sights and sounds of a traditional agricultural show with an unforgettable food and family fun experience.

Just a stone's throw from city life, the two day event offers real value for money, unbeatable food and the ultimate farming experience for the whole family to enjoy! The action packed event will again host a mix of foodie and farming attractions including; food stalls boasting locally produced delicacies, craft and cooking demos, 'Babe' style sheepdog trials and a range of livestock shows.

There is so much for the kids to do. Bouncy castles, face painting, archaeological digs, the Spybus, cycle obstacle courses, kids' golf and lots more. With attractions including Equestrian show jumping, a mobile petting farm and animal theatre, magic shows, biodiversity programmes and a dog agility show, there's something on offer for everyone to enjoy!

Just off the M1, only 10 mins from the M50 and offering free car parking, direct pedestrian access from Donabate train station and bike parking facilities, there's no excuse for not getting to this year's Flavours. Plan your day trip to experience country living at its very best.

Commenting on this year's Flavours of Fingal, Chief Executive Fingal County Council, Paul Reid said: "Fingal County Council is delighted to be organising Flavours of Fingal again this year and we are really looking forward to it. Every year this event gives us the opportunity to show the fantastic things that go on here in Fingal. From farming to food production it's such a great story and we look forward to welcoming more visitors to this year's event to show them Fingal at its very best."

Cllr. David O'Connor, Mayor of Fingal said: "Flavours of Fingal has become a permanent fixture in my calendar and I'm really looking forward to this year's event. Over the two days last year we saw 55,000 visitors come through the gates of Newbridge House and I've no doubt that this year's Flavours will be as special."

Sheila Corbally, speaking on behalf of local farming group Fingal Farmers, said: "Fingal Farmers are very proud partners of the Flavours of Fingal County Show and look forward every year to showcasing the best livestock, crafts and cookery Fingal has to offer."

Commenting on the equestrian element of the show, Brian Beggan of the Fingal Harriers said: "Flavours of Fingal offers a unique opportunity for the very vibrant equestrian community of Fingal to show their horses in the very unique setting of Newbridge House."
