The Ultimate Fanzone at Flavours of Fingal

This weekend's Flavours of Fingal in Newbridge House, Donabate, will have the ultimate Fanzone on Sunday afternoon with three giant screens being installed to allow Ireland fans follow the fortunes of the Boys In Green in their EURO 2016 Last Sixteen tie against France.

In addition to football fans there will also be something for families, foodies and farmers with 50,000 people expected to visit the event on Saturday and Sunday. Final touches are being put to over 50 food stalls, prize cows are being groomed in preparation for this year's event.

Flavours of Fingal, now in its fifth year, combines the sights and sounds of a traditional agricultural show with a memorable food experience, and it all takes place within the historic walled garden of Newbridge House. With special attractions including equestrian show jumping, a mobile petting farm and animal theatre, magic shows, biodiversity programmes and a dog agility show, there's something on offer for all the family to enjoy.

Flavours of Fingal offers real value for money, unbeatable local food and the ultimate farming experience for the whole family to enjoy as well an opportunity to watch the Ireland match on Sunday

Access to Flavours of Fingal is easy as it is just off the M1 at Junction 4 and is ten minutes from the M50. There is free car parking as well as direct pedestrian access from Donabate train station and bike parking facilities so there's just no excuse for not getting to this year's Flavours. Family tickets cost just €20 (2 adults + 2 children).
